According to the Report made to the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

LONDON:

Printed and are to be sold by E. Cotes living in Alderſgate-ſtreet, Printer to the ſaid Company 1665.

Bills of Mortality

The PRINTER to the READER.

Courteous Reader,

I Presume that the Candor of thy Ingenuity is such, that thou wilt not rashly condemn me of Imprudence in the Reprinting these sad sheets. First understand the Reasons moving me thereunto, and then I am somewhat confident that thou wilt Approve of my Design. I know that Romances and Play-books too much gratifie the Humours of the Populace; but humble and sincere Christians, with Delight recall to minde Gods Mercies, and with Awfulness tremble at His Judgments: Behold, the ensuing Papers will assist thy Meditation in both: Consider His Mercy to Thee and Mee, that we are yet in the Land of the Living, to work out our Salvation with Fear and Trembling: His Judgments on many Thousands in or near this City, whom He hath in One year swept away with the Beesome of a Temporal Destruction: O let us not imagine, that they were greater Sinners than we the Survivors! for, Except we speedily and seriously Repent, we shall all likewise perish, either Similitudine, or Certitudine Pœnæ: But I am a Printer no Preacher; I shall therefore wave such Discourses, and briefly, yet perspicuously, render a faithfull Account, why I undertook this Publication.

In the year 1625. the stroke of the Lords hand was heavy upon this City and Suburbs, which year was ever since called

To the Reader.

The Great Plague: Now though thou haſt ſeen probably ſeveral Printed General Reports, given in by the Pariſh Clerks in that year; yet I am not able to Recover all the particular Weekly Bills thereof; the ſight of them hath been much deſired theſe times; but it is beyond my power, as yet, to anſwer mens expectations. That Poſterity may not any more be at ſuch a loſs, I reſolved to communicate unto the Nation, theſe ſubſequent leaves: In all humility beſeeching the Omnipotent, to conferr upon us, ſuch an uniforme and cordial Repentance, that every one of us may ſearch out the Plague of his own Heart and Brain, and Purge our ſelves, by His gratious aſſiſtance, from all filthineſs of Fleſh and Spirit; that ſo He may in the riches of His tender Compaſſion, return in favour to this ſinful City, and reſtore Health to our Habitations: That neither the Phyſitians of our Souls or Bodies, may hereafter in ſuch great numbers forſake us; and that neither my ſelf, or any other of my Profeſſion, may have occaſion, for the future, to Print ſuch Dreadful lines.

Ext of a copy of a letter sent to Mr
Lock from Amsterdam ffebr. 169 2/3

The yeare 1691 when they had a great Epidemick in the Autumn, the number of the dead that yeare was 9202. In the yeare 1692. 6977. neare the usuall proporcion of other yeares.

This is remarkable that though this town be of a low situation & in a Marsh, yet the people live more healthy there then in higher situations in higher places of those provinces. And it hath been observed more then once, that when the plague or any other Epidemick hath reigned in this Country as in that of the yeare 1691. this town hath suffered least. ~~they~~ They died then at Haerlem 4 to One in proporcion to this town, & double every where else.
